

The Madisons

Notes

Thomas Madison's great-great-grandparents were Inola (Foxie) Blackwell and her first husband Nocona, making them distant cousins to the Blackwells. Through Inola, who was a full-blooded Comanche, Native American blood was introduced into the Blackwell clan. Abigail Sanderson was also half-Comanche and Nocona's niece.

James (Chief) Madison was orphaned when he was fifteen and raised by Marshall and Elizabeth Cartwright, although he was never officially adopted. He inherited 5000 acres (broken off of the CW Ranch) when Marshall died which Chief renamed M bar C Ranch.

Francine Prettyfeather is full-blooded Cherokee. While Thomas Madison is nearly full-blooded Comanche.

James (Chief) Madison M Lorelei Black (d. 2006)

Key:

M=Marriage, D=Divorce, A=Affair that produced a child, b=Birth, d=Death

Subject to change as the books are released. This is what the family tree looks like at the beginning of Gambling On a Secret with the ages of the characters listed as the age they are at the beginning of their stories.